Dear Parent/Carer,

Sylvia DeNardi, Andrew Moore and Richard Stanley are the School Counsellors at Hunter River High School. The School Counselling Service provides psychological services to support the learning and wellbeing of students.

I would like a member of the School Counselling team to see (Student name)..... The School Counsellor may need to assess and/or provide counselling to your child, identified above. If formal assessments are completed you will be provided with the results and a report.

A Hunter River High School, School Counsellor may work with your child face-to-face at school or via tele school counselling. Tele school counselling involves communicating with students using secure video calls online and/or telephone calls. This may occur when face-to-face appointments cannot be provided. If tele school counselling is used, a School Counsellor will contact you to make the necessary arrangements.

Please return the permission slip below. If you have any questions or would like to speak with a School Counsellor please contact the school via phone or e-mail.

Yours sincerely

Deb Dibley

Principal

Please sign and return to the school
